“ Sweet, Kimmy. My heart is heavy knowing she has passed away with so much to live for. My mom always talks about when they lived next to her in AAA Trailer Court, little Josh would come over and ask for popsicles! That made mom's day! Didn't see her much through the years, but when we ran into each other, the good old days always come forefront in our conversations. Have good memories of the family and my heart is breaking for them. Sleep well, Kimmy, until Jesus comes and you see your family again. Much love, Dawn McCroskey Wheeler💕

“ So sad to hear of Kim's passing. She was so kind to me growing up. I helped her through the summers with her kids and she taught me about life... and how to drive a stick shift. She lived for her family and will always be remembered for her kindness ❤️

“ We were so saddened to hear of the passing of our beautiful niece Kim. She was the flower girl in our wedding and she had the cutest smile that she carried through out her whole life. She was always there when someone needed help and her joyous personality radiated from her. We are so sorry for your loss. May God comfort each and every one of you. Kim was a precious gift from God who touched so many lives.

With all our love and prayers,

“ To Mona, Brian, Greg, Josh Jim, and others,
So sorry to hear about Kim. I'll never forget her infectious smile. It's been a long time since I've seen Kim, but it's always hard to process when a former Virginia Streeter passes on, especially when they are younger than I am. She deserved better as did those who loved her. Just another example of LIFE not being fair.
