“ Dear Keith and Kim we have many fond memories of your mom and we are sorry to hear of her passing. Wish we could be with you tomorrow, but we have to be at Pittsburgh Airport tomorrow to pick up our oldest son who is arriving from British Columbia (Canada). We will not be back in time for the services. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of sorrow and we extend our deepest condolences.

“ Alice was my dearly loved cousin. Her mother and my father were brother and sister. I'm not sure if we will be able to attend on Friday, but if not, I would like to send our deepest sympathy to her children and her sister Edith. Mildred Nolte Custer
