“ My deepest condolences. So very sorry for the loss of such a wonderful man. My thoughts & prayers are with his entire family. I had the pleasure of working with Larry at Lowes. He was one of the kindest, sweetest people I have ever met in my life. Always had a smile on his face, and a bag full of candy. I'll miss him dearly, especially hearing him greet me with How you doing kid? As he pulled out his stash of candy with the biggest smile on his face. He was a incredible person, and had a heart of gold. I'll miss you Candyman 💙

“ Larry was one of the most unique and enjoyable people that I have ever met! His wittiness and personality is unmatched. When I was told of Larry's passing, I felt a pain inside me that I had not felt since my own father passed away years ago.
Larry I will miss you!!

“ When I was a lil girl and would walk to school he would be walking every morning with his paper and we would talk. He was known as the emergency guy. Then when I became close with Rachael a few years later I realized it was her pap. I will deff miss his sarcasticness and his jokes.

You could not ask for a better person than Larry, fondly know by his friends at Lowe's as the Candyman. Always smiling and always ready with a pat on the back. He loved everyone and everyone loved him. He will be missed dearly but never ever forgotten. Rest in peace my friend.
