“ Ceci, Eva, Josh and family,

I am truly sorry for your loss. Larry was a great Senator. One of the best. I considered him a friend. He always said hi and made time to talk. Always a smile like you Ceci. Loved teaching you Eva. Ceci I loved all of your stories. Especially how you met. Larry as I knew him as will be deeply missed. Loved going by the house and seeing him outside, usually sitting. Sometimes walking in the yard. He was very friendly to all. Such a caring and nice person. Many students loved him. If I recall correctly he taught out at Grandview School 5th grade. Went there to buy honey. Hope the school will always stand.

“ A true gentleman who was a real pillar of the community. Larry always had time to speak with me but more importantly he spent time listening and leveraging the support for the community that we spoke about. Always a smile, never negative.... His service to the community will serve us all for decades to come. May he rest in peace...
