Feels like a member of our own family that we have lost. Gay was always such a great mother, grandmother, friend & a beautiful soul! She may have moved on to a better place, but she has left many of us a part of her that will forever be tucked inside our hearts forever! 🌹 Prayers 🙏 to the family. “ I keep thinking about all the things we won't get to do again. Yard sales; shopping; baking a million cookies every year for the holidays; cooking; Christmas time; crocheting; our outings with Sandy, Lela, Cathy, and I; Christmas shopping every year (we really liked shopping). Thank you for the best memories, I'll love and miss you everyday.

“ Aunt Gay, you were my favorite aunt. You and my dad had the same ornery personality and same ornery smile. I will always remember you smiling and joking around being funny. Your house was always the place the kids wanted to hang out at. Everybody was always welcomed and feed in your home. RIP Aunt Gay you are home now and I know that there were so many people waiting for you there. Love you

“ Grandma was the kindest, most nurturing, loving, free spirited person. She loved to celebrate holidays and do things with the kids. Things like coloring eggs and dressing up for Halloween. She didn't embarrass easily or care when someone thought bad about her. She loved life so full of love and how she wanted. My heart breaks with how cold and dull the world seems without her.
