“ Les and sister Jennie and their parents, Charles and Vivian were our neighbors on Eighth Street many years ago. A wonderful family. Les and his late wife Carol became our neighbors on Virginia Street. Les had a wonderful sense of humor and, like the rest of his family, was very kind and caring. I always enjoyed the opportunity to visit with Les. Whenever I drove past the Barker home, and Les was sitting on his porch, which he enjoyed doing, he'd never failed to smile and wave. Like his precious late wife Carol before him, Les will be greatly missed.

Les was a good Christian man. He loved the Lord and his family with his whole heart. I always enjoyed listening to his many humorous stories that only he could tell. I'm heartbroken for Christy, Chuck, Steven and the rest of the family, but I'm rejoicing that Les is now with Carol and Jonathan, and most of all he is in the presence of the Lord. Praying for God's peace and comfort to cover you all.
