“ It has saddened me to hear of LeAnn's passing. I knew her from Kroger's. She was my favorite cashier. We became friends which led us to be prayer partners. She was so tender hearted. She was concerned about her mom all the time. And so proud of her son. It was hard on her when he went in the service, she would be so excited at the times he came home. She was put on our pray list at Harvest Baptist Church. I know she went through a lot physically but not she is with Jesus. Her and my son both just turned 62. LeAnn on the 2nd and my son on the 8th. Your family is in my prayers. I always asked about her when I went in. And last night again and the cashier gave me the sad news. But Praise The Lord I am looking forward to seeing and being with her again.
Love and prayers for all of you Kathy D
