“ Mary Ellen and family, I was so sorry to see your dad's obituary in the paper and equally sorry that I can't be there for you in person. You were so helpful to Shawna and I at a time when either of us could think straight. If you need anything all don't hesitate to call me. He will be an angel with you through life now. You absolutely know I'll be there in thoughts and prayers. Love, Tara Kay

“ Uncle Llyod will be very much missed; I can't help but think of how happy he and Aunt Mary were when they were reunited. We will miss him here but those who have been without him rejoice at his return home. Our thought and prayers are with each of you. Ashley Efaw please remember you now have two of the strongest angels watching over you, your Dad and your Pap. Two of the greatest men I ever had the privilege of knowing. We love you.
