“ I cant believe you are gone. But I'm sure there's a reunion party going on in heaven somewhere with Flo and Earl and Mommy and Aunt Sarah. We tried to coordinate our schedules several times over the last few years but something always got in our way. I'm gonna miss you my friend. I'm gonna miss all those long talks even when we couldn't see each other. Thank you for everything and most of all thank you for being you!

“ Cant believe that you are gone .. when I got the phone call last night, my heart fell to my feet... you're probably up there raising hell with my pap he just passed away a few days ago . I know you guys are up there probably having a blast sharing a cold one. you will always be a great supervisor, co worker,role model and friend in my eyes. Such a wonderful person to work with. this woman would stand her ground but she would also stand your ground for you and be there for you but also put you in your place and let you know when you're being stupid LOL Lexi I really miss you and I'm so sorry candy that you lost your mom I will be there for the services I can't believe I have to go to another funeral again but I will be their to honor her and pay my respects . your mom got me through some really hard times she knew about my whole life and what I've been through in my recovery and everyday she would check on me and take me out to the blue building to help her clean just to have a talk with me to make sure I was okay that day or if she knew something was wrong she knew right off the bat . She is an amazing woman and always will be . You will never be forgotten ❤️

“ A million years wouldn't have been enough time with you Mama! We was all blessed to have you as our Mother. Your fearless, loving and strong spirit will forever reside with us. I enjoyed the precious time we shared together on our many adventures like kayaking, traveling, horseback riding, tubing when we was younger, fishing to even watching shows and listening to music together, playing video games, the events at the civic arena in our youth (Monster Trucks, Circuses, concerts) etc. to swimming in the Ohio River. I can't wait to see your beautiful face and self again one day. You raised three amazing children and were the best Mom and Grandma we could have asked for! I am proud to call you my Mother, my best friend and I will love you with all my heart forever! Rest easy in heaven until we meet again. Love you more!!!!
