“ I wish everyone in the world had the privilege of knowing Linda. She made the world a better place, just with her smile. She was my all time favorite storyteller, I could sit and listen to her for hours. She and my mother were best friends since childhood, and I was so honored and blessed to know her. I cherish all the moments spent with her and her family. Laura and Carey, you are both in my thoughts. Just know that you both were her world, and she is so proud of you girls. She is with you, always.

I will so miss you! I cherish the good times we had together sitting and standing together in choir! We had such great times singing, laughing and at times just "cutting" up! Till we meet again, rest on girlfriend! And save a seat for me so we can again sing together in Heavens choir! 🙏

“ To the Family, we will miss Linda sweet smile. She never said she felt bad. She loved her grandchildren. She loved her church and choir. She loved being in our Easter and Christmas programs. She was an living example of what a Christian should be. She gave thanks to the Lord Jesus Christ every day. You could ask her how she felt, and she would say fine. I love her and her sweet spirit. We laughed a lot and enjoyed being in the choir. She will be truly missed. We know the Angels are singing in Heaven today. If there is one thing she enjoyed, was showing off her grandchildren and her children. I first met her when she came to pick up one of her grandson from preschool. First time I met here, it was if we had known each other all our life. She was that type of person. Love you Linda, now you are whole again and we wil see each other again. Rest in Your Savior Arms until then.

With God I Went to Be

With God I went to be and I will every Be. He is my rock and salvation I know many will miss me. Please don't morn for me to long because I am with God in heaven on high. I will be in your heart always and I know u will be missing me. I shall be waiting for u to come meet me in heaven when your day comes for u to meet me. I Want peace and rest because with God I went to be and I will ever be with him. Life is to short so don't waist it live it while u can. I knew my time was near when God called me home I'm just resting waiting to see my God. But remember that I'm not suffering anymore for with God I am and will ever be. My God loved u and me and he is making a pace for u like he did me. I will be waiting to see u again remember I'm in your heart and I'm with u in spirit. I want to be set free to fly like a bird so let the Bird free so i can be free to fly like a bird. For with God i went to be and will ever be with him. Written by Tanya Richard (Jingles) Copyright ©

Psalms 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. Psalms 23:2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. Psalms 23:3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Psalms 23:4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Psalms 23:5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Psalms 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

How sad to lose Linda. I have known her practically all my life, grade school, high school and then she married my wonderful cousin Floyd. My Mother and Floyds Aunt, Grace, loved Linda and her girls. After Floyd passed so unexpectedly, Linda married one of my favorite people Daryl. Although I have not seen Linda for such a long time, I will always remember what a wonderful person, mother, wife and friend she was. God Bless her family and as my Mother used to say "heaven just got a little nicer today".
