“ First I'd like to send my deepest, most sincerest condolences to Everyone. Along with tight, warm California bear hugs. When I moved to New Martinsville with her nephew Joby (Martie) in 1987, she lived scross the street a ways and welcomed me into her home every day to keep me company while Joby worked in Richmond. We got to know each other pretty well and I've always had the softest spot in my heart for her ever since. I loved her laugh, I call it the Longwell laugh cause all the sisters sound the same. Anyway, during our visits she would exercise with me so I could lose the baby weight of just having my first baby girl, Apryl Wyne. So my most vivid memory that I still bring up often, to this day is how she told me the way to lose the fat under my arms was to stretch out my arms and act like I'm turning door knobs. She said that's how she did it. So I always picture us standing in her living room twisting invisible door knobs and laughing. Ooh God. I'll miss her sweet silly soul. I love you Linda. I know you are at peace. Sincerely, JoAnna
