

Lisa L. Hoffman

December 9, 1958 - August 27, 2025

Lisa L. Hoffman, a devoted mother, daughter, sister and friend passed away on August 27, 2025 surrounded by family. Lisa was most proud of being mother to her beloved son, Sam, who she considered her greatest accomplishment.

Lisa was a skilled horsewoman. Her passion for horses brought her joy and companionship throughout the years. Lisa was also a history buff, especially knowledgeable about the Civil War. Her love of history reflected her respect of the past.

Lisa attended Salem College for two years majoring in equestrian studies. She graduated from West Virginia University with a degree in Animal Science. Lisa was born in Glendale, WV on December 9, 1958 to the late Carl R. and Jeannette Hoffman of Moundsville, WV. She is survived by her son, Samuel R. McDannels (Anne Rowen) of Queens, NY; her partner, William Coulson of Moundsville, WV; her sister, Grace L. Hoffman of St. Clairsville, OH; her nephews and their families, Morgan Bettinazzi (Audrey Cox), Clay and Hailey of Hilliard, OH, Myles Bettinazzi (Amanda Hudock), Quentin and Mylie of Bethesda, OH; her aunt, Joan Hoffman Schlager of Denville, NJ. Services shall be at the convenience of the family.

Lisa is a good friend of mine and as I said earlier there are 3 things she loved besides her family. Civil war info, horses & Led Zeppelin! If you asked her anything about these 3 things, she would know the answer and add more! Many prayers to Bill, Grace and rest of family.
