“ *Jeff, Bobby & Family,
We are heartbroken over Lisa's passing. Lisa was a great friend to our family. Throughout the years, Lisa was our friend, our bible study teacher, and a shoulder to lean on in our darkest hours. She helped us grow in our faith and was also willing to jump in and help with anything we needed. We did not know Lisa was unwell. I truly believe that's how she wanted it. She continued to always show up for us. One of our most cherished memories was when she traveled to Fairmont to offer the dinner prayer for Leigh's wedding. Her prayers were always beautiful, and on that day in June, she blessed us with the perfect prayer. We truly loved Lisa and cherished our friendship with her. Lisa was a woman of great faith and love for her family and truly inspired us. We will miss her and keep our memories in a special place in our hearts.
With Deepest Sympathy,
