“ I will always cherish the memories of "Pat & Lois together": how she supported, encouraged and totally merged her interests and enthusiasms with his: the years when he returned to college, all those long hours in the garage and on the stockcar circuit, trips in the motor home, sharing his curiosity and exploring every intriguing historical spot along the way (Lois once remarked that Pat never saw a little brown highway marker that didn't spell "detour"). I will miss our quiet talks together when she shared her home with me and my husband during our New Martinsville visits. I will miss you, Lois.
