“ I was so blessed to have met Lorraine when I moved to Elm Grove in 2000. She was my neighbor, and she became my friend. We had many long conversations about life and family. We worked the Wheeling distant race one year handing out water to the runners, enjoyed lunches and shopping together with friends, she even came with me to North Carolina to inspect my future home. Lorraine was a beautiful lady, we all thought she never looked her age. She was a very graceful lady with a lot of class, and I thought the world of her. My life has been enriched by knowing her. May God keep her in his loving care until we meet again.

“ I remember Loraine visiting our Mom when we lived on Fourth Street. Mom had a new dryer and invited Loraine to bring her clothes to try it out. She put in a wool sweater and when they took it out it would maybe fit a small child. They didn't know not to but wool in there! Mom felt so bad. Loraine was beautiful inside and out. Good memories of her and family. Condolences and prayers,

“ I don't know if you remember me... my maiden name was Bierkorte, and we lived on Fourth Street, a few houses down from yours. My mom and your mom were friends. I used to run into your mom when I worked at TJMaxx and she was always so happy to see me! We would have such nice chats and talked about having lunch sometime, but sadly we never did. I'll always remember your mom as being sweet, kind and caring. She was classy, fiesty , and very independent! I'll miss seeing her beautiful face! My sincerest sympathies, Brenda Mangus
