“ Grandpa I miss you so much already. I know you have waited long enough to go be with Grandma in Heaven. You are the strongest, caring man I have ever know. I just hope I can teach Xzavior to be like you when he grows up. You always put everyone before yourself no matter what the situation was. You can fix literally anything. You always knew what to say when something went wrong, if not you told us to ask Grandma to make it better. :) I wish you could see me walk down the aisle when I get married in a couple years. Also to meet your other grand baby. I miss you both so much. I know you are much happier now, back with Grandma, & that is all that matters. Until I see you again. I love & miss you. Rest in peace Grandpa. Your granddaughter, Tiffany

“ Dear Barbara and Terry,

I'm so sorry to hear about your dad. He and your mother were such godly people and role models for all of us growing up at Ash Avenue. I remember their kindness and love, always smiling, ready to help anyone. In your grief, remember where he is, and that you will not only see him again, but be with him for all eternity.
