“ You’ll always be in my memories as my ‘little brother’, with the ornery grin, getting us into trouble with mom. I’m proud of you, Lou, and I’m glad that I told you so. Sometimes we forget to let those we love, that we indeed, love them. You did good, little brother, I’ll miss you

“ RIP Uncle Lou. Hugs, cuz. Much love to you all. I remember playing tripoli with him, Aunt Marcy, Aunt Regina..and whoever else was around. Sometimes at Aunt Regina’s; sometimes at Paul’s. And the annual 4th of July parties at Paul’s. Much love Deb

“ I can still picture the time when four of us buddies were sitting around shooting the bull and someone said, let's join the Marine Corps. We all went to Wheeling recruiters office and all signed up. Three of us went to Vietnam, the fourth almost made it there. We all came back thanks to the grace of God. You will be sorely missed brother.
