“ Margaret was such a sweet, kindhearted woman who always had the time to stop by and share a laugh. My fondest memory of her was when I had just started work and didn't really know or talk to any of my coworkers yet. I had a little stuffed bear on my cart that I had found while stocking shelves, and she stopped by and remarked that the bear was just too cute and that he was my helper for the day; every day I saw her since then, she always asked where my little bear friend was and that she would have to sneak over to toys and bring him back for me. I believe that she will always hold a place in our hearts and that she is a shining example of how we should treat others every day. Margaret will truly be missed!

“ I called her my mamma bear she made me laugh all the time. I loved how she never held anything in,always saying what was on her mind good and bad. I remember passing out candy with her in the bakery at Walmart and watching how much she adored the children then laughing at the comments she made about some of the parents and what kind of candy they should have. I will miss her deeply. She truley was one of a kind! I'm positive she has everyone including God in heaven smiling ear to ear. What an angel!
