“ I just received a phone call from Claire Rothenbuhler about the passing of Magarete. Claire felt that Magarete was a very special person to her and shared her memories of what they did together and how Magarete added to her life. As Eric was leaving for work he remember Magarete as a very special and unique person. You will be missed. Peace to your family.

“ I knocked on Margarete's door on a daily basis to see if Justin could play. I was always greeted with a warm welcome. Unless Zale was on the front porch. He would say, "just go on in, he's in there somewhere." Margarete's treated me as if I was one of her own. Her stories of her childhood, her time in Germany and her other life experience; it was interesting to just sit and listen. She will never be forgotten, RIP Margarete. ~Craig Brown~

“ We had the privilege of getting to know Ms. Margarete when my husband was pastor at First Baptist Church, Woodfield. She was a precious lady, always so kind and generous! She was such a faithful Christian and member at Clarington. She will have great treasures in heaven!

“Margret was my wonderful neighbor while I was growing up. I loved spending time at your house. I kept some of my Barbies at your house on the enclosed back porch! You sewed most of my clothes during my school years -- what a blessing! We looked forward to your special cookies and the Kaiser Wilhelm cake loaded with fruit each Christmas. The cookbook she gave to me will be treasured always!!! Still trying to translate the German. The ladies loved to come to your parties for hot dogs and German potato salad. The best gift you gave to all of us was your loving smile and your friendship!

“Margarete, we always enjoyed hearing stories about your growing up years. You led a very interesting and courageous life as a young woman and mother. I loved your sense of humor and your mischievous smile, as well as your sparkling, bright eyes. You were so creative and I will always cherish the tablecloth and doilies that you made for me. Rest in peace dear friend, until we meet again in Heaven. Dennis & Sheila Walkley

“I have such wonderful memories of attending church with Margarete, singing in the choir, and teaching AWANA with her. I often hear her beautiful singing voice in my mind, and, specifically remember her sing "Were you there" every Easter, and "Silent Night" in German every Christmas. I have a gorgeous crochet table clothe she made me, which I have always treasured! Sending prayers for comfort and peace to her sweet family! <3 Love, Deedee Raper Morgan
