“ I will always remember my beloved Aunt Margie. We were the artists in the family.
We would always go to their house every summer when I was little and she would have her famous macaroni salad waiting for us.
Tom and I just came back from the Henry Ford museum in Michigan and they had a huge locomotive there and I thought of uncle Bud.
I can't wait to see them again in Heaven. I bet Margie and Daddy are dancing and holding hands.
Love to the family,
