“ Mark was one of a kind and well loved by all his family. He was Uncle Leroy’s son, that’s for sure. The older he got the more he just acted like him. I will always remember him and his funny stories. He , for sure is in heaven with all the family.

Mark was a wonderful man so kind and sweet. We all went to high school together. Mark sure knew his cars inside and out and was a fair and honest auto salesman. I recall he sold my dad a small pick up truck and included a "Polish music" CD. We loved Mark!

Rest in peace Mark! Play some of that Polish Polka music in Heaven.
