“ Mark and I share alot of memories. He was very enthusiastic, He loved to learn, read endlessly, anything he did"nt know, he would find out. Everything he wanted to do he conquered, and achieved highly. He had a can do attitude about everything. I loved that about him. He loved dogs. I decided to go to college, and man if it was'nt for Mark helping with Algebra, Statistics.. I would have failed. But he saw me through it, he saw me through alot of things, and I saw him through alot of things. We were there for each other. Mark I am so glad we had this chance to have a friendship, a relationship, a trust. I am glad that we made this journey together. Good or bad as you would say. YOU MY FRIEND LEFT AN IMPRESSION., and i will never forget you. I love you alway will. xoxoxox

“ Mark and I worked together at METS Paramedic Service. We were always playing practical jokes on each other. He was a good guy.

Anthony Branch - October 16, 2014 at 04:14 AM

“ Mark was one of my first paramedic students and we always found a way to play practical jokes on one another. I remember his determination to do the best in learning and caring for patients as a new medic. May peaceful memories surround you in the days ahead.
