“ Marty Dofka, it would have been unselfish of you to inform the entire family of Dads funeral. Sad Dad isn't here to straighten you out anymore.

“ Anna and family, please accept my heartfelt sympathy -- I grew up in Pleasanton, my family lived on Arcadia Avenue. Martin's grocery was the only place we shopped -I remember Sonny would let my Mother know when he had fresh sour kraut - Sonny gave me my first paying job! That of delivering flyers with store specials listed - to the entire Pleasanton neighborhood! Everyone was family there - he would give us a piece of candy from the candy counter! He would cut the best meat for my Mother and all his customers! Sonny was a wonderful and generous man, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ (The Hands Picture)
The youngest and the oldest.
Thank You for everything.
Love you forever.

I was afraid to post anything like this because I didn't want to say the wrong thing or forget something that needed said. His story is long and I could never fit all I wanted, but here's some of what I want to share.

People close to me know how much I loved my Father and knew of the many struggles he endured the last few years.

My Father passed @ 10:15 last night. I was by his side while he passed. A Marine that served during WWII. He was too young to join the service so he lied about his age to get in ;) Check out his Marine Tattoo from when he was serving in Hawaii.

Married 67 years, he had 6 kids, I am the youngest. He loved all of his kids unconditionally. His pride and joy was his grand kids and great grand kids.

He owned and operated Martin's Food Market on Washington Ave. One of the first businesses ever to deliver groceries direct to your house. He was a Butcher, a florist, and farmer that grew the best Sweet Corn in the region. Many knew him as Martin, many knew him as Sonny and Everyone knew Martin's Food Market.

He had a greenhouse next to his business and a second greenhouse at home. He grew flowers for the entire community. After he retired he still enjoyed growing flowers. The man had a Green thumb. In the summer months He loved sitting a few hours selling his flowers, tomato plants, peppers, beets etc... I think it was an excuse to hang out and talk to all the people. It really seems everyone knew him in the tri-state region.

He was a strong believer in God and was loud and proud about it. He was always active in the Church and often handed out communion @ St. Michael's in Wheeling. As the priest Anointed him the night before his passing, he said "Martin you have a straight shot in, you have nothing to worry about". He knew my father well.

I am going to miss him dearly, I already do. At the same time, I feel relief that he is no longer in pain. I'm going to need time by myself, I'm still grasping it all.

Before I end this, I love hearing stories of all the people that knew him and people he touched. Bring them on.

Here's a a short one. I changed my car insurance after 35 years from Allstate to Erie. The agent told me she knew my Dad and when She had cancer he would stop once a week bring her a rose and pray. I teared up when she told me. However, That was him, full of love and loved make everyone feel good.

*Rest In Eternal Peace Dad
I Love You Forever*

“ Dear Sarita,

I am truly sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. He played such a vital role in the Washington Avenue neighborhoods with his little grocery store. I have fond memories of it, i.e., riding my bicycle over there just to look inside. May God bless you and your family in this difficult time.

*Marty Dofka III you had the funeral and buried Dad without telling me or Jimmy of the service.
I found it on the internet.
Shame on you. Dad isnt here anymore to straighten you out, like he always had to do with you, Bill and the boys.
Karma to you buddy.*
