“ I was shocked and saddened to learn of Mary’s death today. For seven years, she was my buyer at Ace. We spent as much time catching up on family, her trips to Washington, hair color, nails, etc., as we did working on an order. She was a lovely woman with whom I thoroughly enjoyed working. My sincerest condolences to her family and friends.

“ I don’t live in the Moundsville area now. But I just happened to see a posting about Mary’s passing. I am so sorry for her family and their feeling of loss. And so sorry for all of her friends who also are missing her so much. I understand. She grew up in a great area with a great family heritage. She was a great girl and lady. Always with a smile. Take care.

“ Shock and sorry to hear about Mary today, an East Ender who I've known since her dad was playing fast pitch softball for the Clowns at East End. The last of the Olive Ave Garcia family. All gone too soon. Proving again, life is not always fair. My thoughts and sympathy go out to Bill, her kids, and the rest of Mary's family and many friends. She deserved better.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to all of you. My memory of Mary Lynn goes way back to being kids, playing together as friends and neighbors. We reconnected when our sons played hockey together with such good times and laughs. Her smile and her sense of humor will always be a part of what made those times so precious. She will be missed so much by so many. Love Henderson family
