“ Kathy, Sometimes when I was down at Aunt Ruth's working in her yard, your mom would be playing the piano I would just stop what I was doing and Aunt Ruth and I would just listen to her play, it was beautiful. She would occasionally come and talk with us on Uffie's back porch, she was a nice lady. So sorry for your loss.

“ Kathy, Mary Ann and I go back so many years. I cannot remember when I did not know her. When we had the camp on Fish Creek, Days and Years at MHS. Travels to outlet malls. So many memories. Our trip to Dallas. Visits with me in Florida. You and the boys were her life. Please cherish the good memories she has created for all of us.
