“*I grew up with Mary. Unfortunately, I have not seen her in many years due to living so far away. Mary always was a gentle and kind soul. She also liked to have fun. I am so glad that I had her as a next door neighbor and friend.
My most sincere condolences to Brad, Martha Carol, and Harriett.

“ It was such a shock to hear that Mary had so quickly, in seemed, gone to join her mother and other family and friends - to pass from this life journey. Mary leaves such a wonderful legacy of strength, faith, and acceptance which we can only hope to emulate but never achieve. She was and is a charter member of family of females - she, her sister Martha Carol, Harriet, and their mother Margaret - who have lived a life of such generous love and strength that anyone spending time with them could not help but be affected. She, Margaret, Martha Carol and Harriet shared a love which was and is both honest and unconditional. As is Margaret she will be greatly missed but will also live on in our hearts. I personally feel an enormous gratitude for and to Mary. I know that Martha Carol and Brad, with whom she shared a home. carry both the burden and the gift of her example. As has always been true they will do so with enormous grace. Jim Pickett
