“ Mary to me as a child was “Trudy, Gale, and Mary”. No matter when or if we were going to New Martinsville or they were coming to moundsville Uncle Bob and Aunt Elsie had no name it was the kids. Mary was the quiet one a few years younger than myself and brothers but close enough in age to be included. During the summer nearly every year I had the prevalege to stay with them. They are times I will not forget. Love you all.
