“ Mary was a kind pleasant person who always loved her family. Even when she was not able to communicate much, she still got her message across. She will be missed. God bless you all, Patty (Estep) Wylie

“ I only met Mary a couple of years ago and immediately became very fond of her. Although she couldnt verbally communicate she really enjoyed visitors. Her sister Leona and I visited her quite frequently. She loved her doughuts and milkshakes and homemade peanut butter fudge. She is now an angel in heaven looking down on her family. Praying for all of her family and friends.

She adored Leona! The were best friends! And she was so happy to see and meet you Cathy. Mike always said she loved your fudge! Katy does too.
