

Mary Zaid Stees

June 5, 1951 - January 15, 2024

Mary Zaid Stees (nee Magnone), 72, died on January 15, 2024. She is a loved wife, mother, sister, daughter, and friend. She leaves little doubt that she was full of life – she said what she meant and meant what she said.

Family was her passion. She was all about carrying on her Lebanese heritage with food, family, and friends. Every holiday (and near holiday) was a party with the best laid table, food, and camaraderie, and always an open door.

She was a devout Catholic and dedicated to her church, Our Lady of Lebanon. She was often found at mass, church group meetings, and running the kitchen for bake sales, church events, and the Mahrajan Festival.

She was a life-long resident of the Ohio Valley who loved traveling and going out, especially with her husband Bill, taking cruises, and wining and dining wherever the wind blew them.

Mary Zaid loved needlepoint and spent hours crafting and framing elaborate canvases that decorated her home and that she gifted to friends.

She was the loudest sideline cheerleader at her children's athletic events, and even coached a few seasons of rec league soccer. She volunteered as a Girl Scout leader when her daughters were in elementary school. As a grandmother (aka Sitte), she totally spoiled her grandkids.

Mary Zaid graduated from John Marshall High School and helped plan fun-loving class reunions for many decades after.

She attended Drexel University where she met and married her love, Bill Stees. After graduating with her accounting degree, Mary Zaid and Bill moved to WV near her extended family.

Her mother, aunts, and uncles founded women's clothing store Jozabeth's in Moundsville, where Mary Zaid worked after college. She loved fashion and shopping trips to Pittsburgh and New York to buy merchandise for the store. She and her sister, Libby G. Magnone, took over co-ownership of the store until its closing in 2013.

Mary Zaid was preceded in death by her parents, William Nicholas and Elizabeth Ann Magnone. She is survived by her husband, Bill Stees; son William Patrick Stees; daughters Josie Fertig, Caroline (Josh) McDowell and Gina Stees; sister Elizabeth G. (Raymond Young) Magnone; brother William Nicholas (Arlene) Magnone; four grandchildren; and many cousins.

Family will receive friends on Monday from 4-7pm at Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 1 Ridgecrest Road, Bethlehem/Wheeling. Funeral liturgy with mass will be celebrated Tuesday at 11:00am at Our Lady of Lebanon Church, Wheeling, with Msgr. Bakhos Chidiac as celebrant.

Graveside services will follow at 2:00pm at Riverview Cemetery, Moundsville. In memory of Mary Zaid Stees, memorial contributions can be made to Our Lady of Lebanon Church, 2216 Eoff St., Wheeling, WV 26003.

“ It was a joy to be your sister-in-law, Mary. Your fiesty spirit, your sense of humor, your no-nonsense spirit, your wisdom about life, your love, and your deep care for family....all will be sorely missed! I look forward to living close to you in heaven, walking the golden streets with you, and hopefully eating your delicious bac lava as we stroll. Thank you for your amazing life of love. I already miss you sorely.

“ I met Mary in high school at a music workshop at St. Vincent College in Latrobe, PA. I also met Libby then also. Mary and I became good friends and played guitar in our room there. We had a good time. We attended these workshops 2-3 summers. We continued to be friends for many years. We visited each other and our children played together. Mary invited my husband and I to join she and Bill for a class reunion 11day cruise in 2017 to the Caribbean. It was a wonderful trip and Mary’s friendship was a treasure. Our birthdays were only 3 days apart. We always sent cards to each other for birthdays and Christmas. She will be missed. May you be at peace with the Lord. Till we meet again, dear friend.

“ Mary was so much fun and such a hard worker . She is the reason our high school reunions were such a success. She had a good head on her shoulders and kept the committee in line! We talked recently and she said we were going to have one for 60. It would not be the same without her to cheer us on. I can see her in heaven planning a big reunion when we all get there. sandie

“ Mary was one of a kind. A bright candle in a dimly lit room. Always a smile, a hug, something to make the day brighter. She surely left her footprint on this earth and I know she will be welcomed by the Angels. Carol Dougherty
