“ We all grew up together on the rolling hills of Dorsey, we all helped one another as we grew as we learned from each other. How I remembered that cold day at Burley Court on the steps (Brick Wall Still High) Dave, myself along with my younger brother John and couple others, Dave stood up said let's build a snowman, so we did about 30 foot tall. That was the best place to grow up and how we really did grow with the help of one another in are community. REST IN PEACE MY GOOD FRIEND Until we meet again.
