Michael Anderson and I have been friends for a very long time. He mowed my grass for a lot of years. He always made me laugh even when I wanted to be mad at him. You couldn't stay mad at him for long. He just had this way about him. I'm going to miss my little buddy. I always called him little boy blue. I don't remember how that got started but that's what we used to call him in the day. He is heaven now and no longer suffering. Will see you in heaven someday. I miss you Michael.

I will never forget the very first day that I met Michael.. the day he moved into the towers, he asked me if he could come and talk to me, I said sure anytime that you want to, I always enjoyed talking with him, I started looking out for him because people liked to take advantage of him, never did when I was sprint though.. I enjoyed all the days that I got to see Michael when I was I working there.. he is an angel now watching over all of us.. RIP Michael.. you will be missed..
