“ Dear Penny & Family, Please accept my sincere condolences! I know it's easy to say Mike is in a better place but we know he is and eventually that will bring comfort to you and your family. You will meet again one day and my prayer is that until then you will all find peace, comfort and be able to share wonderful memories. Love, cousin Bonnie Wienke

“ My heartfelt condolences to Penny and Bill, and to Marsha and Michelle. I will always remember Mike when he was young and spending lots of time with my son (Mike's cousin) Carl and their other cousin John, hanging out having fun and getting into trouble. What one of them didn't think of the other two would! The suffering is over now, and I know that Mike is in heaven and enjoying the blessings that he deserves. Too young, yes, but there are no guarantees in this life. God bless you Mike and rest in peace. I love you.

“ To the family of Mike Brink-It was an honor for me to brink Mike his meals from Catholic Charities twice a week. We were both Steeler fans too & had the same first name. His suffering is now over. It's us who are now hurting but we will go on as I'm sure Mike would want us to. Rest in Peace, Mike. And may God's peace comfort his loved ones left behind.
