“ Dear EISENBARTH family, my heart is saddened in learning the loss of MICHAEL!
I had lost track of him and just recently heard of his illness and residence and after nearly fifty years was able to send him a letter and a gift package of cookies and encouragement via a mutual special friend. He was pleased, i'm Told. MICHAEL worked with my dad at. Ormet and dad played a bit of a matchmaker. MICHAEL and I dated for awhile until my job transferred me from the area. I never forgot. MICHAEL and I am sad to lose him but so glad his suffering has ended. Trusting he is in the arms of. Jesus. God bless you all!

Thoughts and prayers to all of you. Mike was a good neighbor to my mother, Eileen Haines. He would bring her fruits and vegetables from his farm. Sometimes i'd Bring her home from an appointment or shopping and there would be a brown paper bag with his latest harvest. Mom so appreciated his thoughtfulness. I ran into him at Walmart after Mom passed and I told him how much his kindness was appreciated by all of us. Bless his heart.
