

Michael Rosmon Whorton

February 9, 1940 - May 22, 2024

Michael Rosmon Whorton, age 84, of New Martinsville, WV, passed away Wednesday, May 22, 2024 in New Martinsville, WV surrounded by his family. He was born February 9, 1940 in Farmington, WV, a son of the late Earnest Rosmon Whorton and Alice Crowe Whorton.

He was a retired coal miner at Consol Coal in the Ireland and McLroy mines and a proud member of UMWA. He liked to hunt, fish, and spend time with his family.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by a brother, Jeffery Whorton; two sisters, Beverly Dutton, and Linda Bixby; and two grandsons, David Riter, and Shane Cecil.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Carol Whorton; one son, Mike Whorton (Julie Wetzel) of New Martinsville; four daughters, Gerri (Mark) Cecil of New Martinsville, Michelle Riter of New Martinsville, Shawna Winland of New Martinsville, and Kelly (Chad Hickman) Whorton of Concord, NC; two sisters, Paula Whorton of Moundsville, WV, and Sharon (Chuck) Morris of Charlotte, NC; eleven grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, and his beloved pets Coco and Jasmine.

A celebration of life will be held at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Grisell Funeral Home and Crematory, 751 Third Street, New Martinsville, WV.

Uncle Mike was the father I never had, little Mike the brother. Will never forget the hunting and fishing trips they took me on. Uncle Mike had 3 Chiwawa's most of his life. You couldn't even look at him sideways without getting attacked! Still have scares from Coco. Forever missed, never forgotten!
