“ I am so sorry for the loss of Jane. She was so good to me as a child. We use to sit on the porch and string beans. We hung out a lot. My sympathies go to all of her family and friends. Now, she can visit with my Mom in heaven and talk about the old neighborhood.

“ Sorry about the death of the "Matriarch" of the Crow family. She was probably the oldest living mother of kids I grew up with. If I was going to give Mrs. Crow credit for one thing, it would be for giving myself and others in my generation an eclectic and entertaining group of children . My thoughts go out to all of her kids , other family members, and the numerous friends she had during her time on this earth.

“ Last time all the Kaylor clan got together I greeted Aunt Jane at the hotel reception desk. She informed me that the bih long haired boy out front just had to be a Kaylor. I started laughing and informed her he was my youngest son Matt. She always made me laugh. She was the last of an amazing generation of Kaylor.
