“ Mrs. Morris, Todd, Rodd, Dave and Robbie ...I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Denny was always very kind and generous to me. Recently, I ran into Todd and was able to share a story of how much Denny helped me collect all the "state" quarters so that each of my boys could have a set. It seems like something little, but he would stop at my office and I knew that he had some quarters for me that I couldn't find on my own. I wondered how he did that and figured he had an inside source!! I feel blessed to have known him. Best thoughts and prayers to all of you.

“ To all the relatives of Denny, Your husband, father, grandfather, brother, etc was always a stand-up guy to me. I always enjoyed talking to him and even when not agreeing with him, respected his opinion, as I'm sure he did mine. While we weren't close friends, I'll always remember Denny from my early days of going into to the Castle Club to my own middle age and talking to him in Elites. He appeared to enjoy his time on this earth as much as anyone and more importantly left it a better place. There is nothing being more evident of this, than his sons he left behind.
