“ I wasn't even a teenager when I opened my first certificate of deposit with a place that was then called Colonial Federal Savings and Loan and located at the corner of Sixth and Tomlinson. Nancy always treated me with dignity and respect and had a very definitely understanding of what the word _service_ meant. She always greeted me with a smile and was always professional in all my dealings with her, up until I was 25 and moved out of town.

Colonial Federal became Magnet Bank. Magnet Bank became Atlantic Financial. Atlantic Financial became One Valley Bank, and they moved to Fifth and Jefferson. Now it's BB&T.

Nancy was there through all these changes. Thank you for your kind and courteous service.

“ Dear Lisa and Tyler, Bekah and I are so very sorry with the loss of Nancy. I was just talking to her a couple weeks ago at the post office. She looked beautiful as always. We were reminiscing about when the kids were in school together. I was so shocked to see that had she past. I remember talking to her at the bank throughout the years. Nancy was a class act and just a lovely person. We are so very sorry for your loss. Joette and Rebekah Zeigler
