“ "NeNe" as she was known by the Smith Family, loved all those children and grandchildren like she had been there forever. How blessed to have had her all those many years.
I know Michele, Mike, Robby, Brenda and Pam, Allen and all the other babies shared their beloved Father and their Mother's memory with this sweet woman.
What a dance. What an inspiration. We will never forget the joy she brought.
Thank you for sharing her with us. I hope you made the most of the short time she was away from her Smith Family. SHE was loved by her Ohio family like a Mom and Grandmom and everything in between.
NANCY SMITH: May the angels nestle you in the downiest yarn our Almighty Creator can spin

Such a wonderful pic to share! She was and always will be my 18 yr old grandmother. She taught me so many wonderful secrets about life and we would laugh and laugh. She was a wonderful great grandmother to my children and the only grandmother that I really had around. So sad to see her Ohio family wasn't mentioned. She married a Smith and became one of us right off the rip. Her personality and smiles will forever add light to my life. She is sadly missed. Her GRANDDAUGHTER, Megan
