“ Nancy was one of a kind. I loved her like she was my own Grandma. She was funny and you never knew what she was gonna say. I always loved talking to her, she could always manage to put a smile on your face.

“ Nancy, was a special lady who would always wave and speak to me when I would run by her house in the early 80's. She would always be wearing a smile! She would tell me that I had better be careful and not ruin my knees. I only wish I had known her better. Dewey was a very nice person as well. Mike and I send our heartfelt condolences to the entire family. Norman and his family in particular. RIP sweet lady. I'll never forget your kindness.

“ When my husband was in Vietnam in 1972 to 1973 Nancy helped me by just being there just to listen and let me know that she was there for me. My husband, Larry considered her a second mom. She meant a lot to us both.
