“ To Nancy's family, it is so hard to believe that I can't go out my back door and see Nancy working in her flowers. We shared many flowers over the last few years. As we walked by this morning with Canaan before church I was reminded of the many times we have shared our flowers. She will be missed by many but the memories we all share and have of Nancy will keep her with us. Sending prayer to all of Nancy's family and friends and this most difficult time. Jeanne Ritchie

“ Nancy was a hard working woman/Mom and she did I agree make it look easy! For me my memories are a time before PPG she sold Stanley Home Products. At one point I signed up and sold Stanley under her and we won a trip to Tennessee. Fun times and I learned much from her. To her family my thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ Many years have passed since I became acquainted with this sweet lady by the Biblical name of Nancy. My daughter, Vicky Hall (at the time) and Amy became good friends in high school, and Vicky would spend the night with Amy and the rest of the siblings, which she really enjoyed. She loved larger families.....so I heard endearing things about Nancy before I truly met her at Judy's Ceramics Class. I always admired her sweet smile and her opinions on most anything..I thought she had the most beautiful hair in the universe. But what I loved about her forever lasting is how graciously she raised her five children alone. She loved each one, and eagerly watched their achievements which were diverse. Nancy had a gracious spirit, working many years at PPG without complaining, came home to greet her family and gather them for dinner time...Nancy was everything a Mother AND friend should be. Remember her with honor, but let her go!.....she is with HER Saviour forevermore....With SINCERE SYMPATHY to all the family. May God grant you peace in the days ahead....with Christian love.....Carol Conrad Moore

“ I only knew Nancy through some friends and family. She was always smiling, happy, and talked a lot of her children and grandchildren. What a great quality she had. I can only pass on my condolences for family and friends. What a great loss she will be. Prayers for all in the help with the hurt and loss. She will hold a special place with many. Suzette Anderson

“ Nancy has always been quite an inspirational person. Full of joy and hard-working, raising 5 wonderful children without batting an eye. She made it look easy! I am very sorry for your loss, but there is little doubt that she left many wonderful memories that will keep her close to you all for years to come.
