“ Remembering you again as you struggle to understand Gods timing, I think of dad sitting in my classroom nearly 50 years ago. He was always kind, polite, and industrious as he leaned slightly forward to finish the math quickly and without errors. Diane, I have good memories of you too. Always sincere and open as you are now, you have a good future ahead.

Sorry Levi that I temporarily forgot my days with you until you reminded me with your usual enthusiasm. I was so happy with you. You have become a good good man and will become greater as you put your faith in God and travel In his steps. The best to you also Zach.

I am praying for you all. Mr. Indermuhle (as Neal addressed me)

“ Dearest Diane, Levi, Zach, Brent, and family: Cherish in the fact that our journey does not end on this earth, but that it is simply a rest stop on the pathway to Heaven. One cannot fathom that ETERNITY LASTS FOREVER. I am saddened by the passing of my union brother but most importantly MY BROTHER IN CHRIST. Yes Neal will be missed on this earth, but rest assured that GOD WILL USE THE MANY TALENTS THAT HE POSSESSED. Take care my good friend. Save me a seat until we meet again.

IN CHRISTIAN LOVE, Curt Lindner
