“ I'm still having some trouble accepting my grandfather's death. In my mind, he is still alive and well harassing my grandma with his little dog by his side. I saw him not even a week before he passed, and if I had known he wouldn't be around much longer, I would've spent more time with him. He had a great sense of humor, and could always make you laugh. He taught me my very first joke. Pete and Repeat are in a boat. Pete jumps out. Who's left? Repeat. Pete and Repeat are in a boat. Pete jumps out. Who's left? Repeat...I'll never forget that joke for as long as I live. Rest in Peace, Pap.

“ I wish I would've got the chance to say goodbye but I know he's in heaven now and we'll meet again some day. I'm going to miss the times we had watching the game and just talking. I love you Pappy

“ You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Never forget your father lives on in you, and your children. His physical body is the only thing about him that is not with you anymore. He is always in your hearts.

“ Nelson was a well-liked classmate of mine for twelve years. He was definitely one of the good guys, down to earth, with always a twinkle in his eyes. We were all so glad to see him at our 50th class reunion. My deepest sympathy to you Susie, your children and grandchildren. Nelson will always be remembered fondly. Betsy

“ My memories of my Pap are flooding through my mind right now..He would always say to me Pap's right and Grandma's wrong....When we all new Grandma was the boss. I was his little girl, who would stay up late on Saturday nights watching Benny Hill and laughing hysterically not because I knew the humor of it but because Pap thought it was funny. I love you Pap and I will cherish our memories that we had and will miss you greatly. Love Brandy

“ What can I say?? Most memories of grade and high school center around one's good buddies. Mine always include Nelson. From class to playing football to just hanging out..it was always me, Lib, Zita, Passa, Moran, and Nelson. He was a terrific guy who never had a bad thing to say about anyone. He will be sorely missed, but will live on in my dreams of yesterday in Bellaire. I regret not getting to know you his family better over the years. Please accept my sincerest and deepest condolences.
