“ What a heartbreaking loss not only to Ron, but to us all as we lost a true angel. Some of my most cherished memories include Norma and the family, especially out at her parents' farm. Norma always treated me as one of her own, from her innate kindness and hospitality, to patching me up a couple times till I could get home to my own momma! My Mom and Norma were childhood friends just as Mike and I were, and she'll always be alive, with her characteristic big smile, in my heart. ”

“ Ronnie and Family, Judy and I are saddened by the loss of a childhood friend and a part of the Thomas and Wellman family. She was loved and respected by all. I litterly grew up with the Conner family and was so proud that you found each other. You are in our thoughts and prayers at this time of great sorrow. Although we have been far apart you and yours were always remained close to my heart. She will remain in my memory as a beautiful, wonderful Lady.
