“ Norman and Doug his son were employees of PPG., and it was there that I had the wonderful opportunity of meeting him and talk to him, others will know of his abilities in life, I was sorry that I heard of his passing, James said it best when he said, life is a vapor and it comes and passes. I hope that Jesus will be with his wife,Doug and his other family, and friends ,as they grieve his great loss to them. a former employee and I consider him a friend. Larry Ritz

“ Norman was one of the kindest men I’ve ever known. He always had a smile for me whenever I saw him. He always said “hello” and made me feel welcomed. I truly loved him as a great human being. The world has lost a wonderful man.

“ He loved his family with all of his being and we never had to question that because he told us often. He told the best stories and the best ones were always when we were camping and around the fire. He loved his great grandchildren even more which I don't even know how that's possible. He was an amazing person and I was so lucky to have him as my grandfather all these years.
