“ Dear Oakland family:Know that Maryann and your entire family are in my thoughts and prayers during this very sad time. I will never forget the interesting and candid discussions I had with Maryann over the years while she was my student here at Central. I will also never forget last spring (2010) when she and Andrew Kerwood came by to let me know how well they were doing. I was so pleased for Maryann who expressed that she found her niche in nursing. She was finally on her way! I believe that she can help to heal the sick from her home in heaven. May God hold you all in the palm of His hand and may the peace that surpasses all human understanding comfort you. I will remember her always. I believe that Maryann lives in the joy of heaven.Peace,Amy M. Granato

“ "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." No words could possibly comfort you, only God can do that; but we do want to say how deeply and tenderly we feel for all of your family for the loss of your daughter, Maryann. We will keep you all in our prayers.——Roy, Karen, Josh & Zach Estep

“ Michelle and family, My heart is broken for you . How many times we talked about your children when we had our smoke breaks or worked together. May you be comforted during this tragic time, knowing that your daughter is now being lovingly taken care of by her Lord, and may God wrap you tightly in his arms to help you get through the pain and sorrow you must be feeling, I can only imagine what it would be like to lose your daughter, words seem shallow but know that you and Karen and Dave and your children are in my thoughts and prayers. with love & deepest sympathy, Sue Roe

“ Dave, Michelle, and the rest of the Fahey and Oakland families, it would be foolish for me or anyone else to think we could put words down to make you feel any better. No one has yet or will ever, so I'll just be brief and say I am very sorry for your loss. You guys are in my thoughts and sympathy forever.
