“ Our sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and words are never enough to take away the pain. However, our Heavenly Father knows your grief. As a loving and caring Father, He will be there to comfort and sooth your "broken-heart and crushed spirit". (Psalm 34:18). May you find comfort and hope in God's promise of a day when you will reunite with your loved one again. (Isaiah 26:19).

“ She was the only person who ever called me "Marshmallow", for which I am eternally grateful, but she said it with such love... Before she was David's mom, she was my Aunt Patti and I loved spending time at her house. I think she had eight cats at one point and I loved them all, except for Iggy, I was kind of scared of Iggy. And dogs, she always had a dog. I share my aunt's love of and connection to animals. I am quite sure there were a lot of purrs, head butts, tails wagging and happy dog kisses for her when she arrived across that Rainbow Bridge.
