“ Dear Kristen, Scott, & Greg~ my deepest sympathy to you on the loss of your mother. Patty was so consistent in her faith, her love of each of you and your sweet children, and her love for your Father. I marveled at her kindness to me, to Andrea, to Mom & Dad and then to Todd. I am so grateful that she is well now, resting in the arms of our Savior. Praying for you each, for peace and comfort. Love, Kim

“ I will always call her Mrs. Chapman. Growing up as a child on Beehaven meant that all the mothers looked after the kids on the lane. I remember being so excited when she was expecting Kristen. She always let me "practice" my mothering skills. To Greg Scott and Kristen- what wonderful memories we share growing up and being cared for. I hope you find peace knowing she is finding eternal rest and holiness. Maryellen (Megna)

“ Patty, my most dear and life long friend. We met in 2nd grade at Fulton School and our friendship lasted all these years. Many happy memories. Our childhood, our marriages, births of our children, their marriages, grandchildren..... Such a strong Christian and the bravest woman I know. Rest in peace with God.
