“ *It's always a sad time when we lose someone we love. I'm so thankful for the many memories we have of you. Beaver absolutely adored you and you'll forever hold a special place in our hearts. I promise to take something in your memory to the Marshall county fair from here on out, though I know it'll never be the same without you. Thank you for excepting me from day one! Although it's been years since we have seen each other, I will always remember being so jealous of you when we were young. I was just starting into my teen years, and you were already a full-grown woman. You were so pretty, and any time my Uncle John came to visit, the first thing he would do is have us call you, and tell you he wanted to see you. I was jealous because I thought you were "stealing" him from us. We only got to see him about once a year, and we had to share him with you.

As I got older, I became more tolerant, but will always remember those evenings sitting on the porch with you and Uncle John. I'm sure your family is going to miss you so much, but they know that you are in a much better place than that dark world of Alzheimer's or dementia. Whatever you want to call it, we lose our loved ones to it long before their bodies leave this world. R. I. P., and if you run into Uncle John, tell him Mary said hi and I still love him.
