“ I remember as a child coming to your house and playing with you Rodney and William. there was only you and William at that time. Mom brought us to your house often and I remember the picture of your grandmother Dolly hanging on the wall which Patty gave to my mom Hazel South Gray when Dolly died. Patty was a beautiful lady. I never realized we were cousins growing up. Patty and my mom were good friends as well as cousins. Please accept my deepest sympathy to your family.
