“ I remember Pat as a school mate many years ago in Bellaire, totally floored that he has passed. I remember that he was a great soul and loved by everyone. My condolences to his family, and know how special he was to the people who knew him then, and all through his life. ”

“ Thank you to all who left wonderful notes on this site for our beloved Patrick. I have read this poem over & over again to attempt to find comfort and wanted to share it.

*Death is nothing at all
I have only slipped away into the next room
I am I and you are you
Whatever we were to each other
That we are still
Call me by my old familiar name
Speak to me in the easy way you always used
Put no difference into your tone
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow
Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes we always enjoyed together
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was
Let it be spoken without effort
Without the ghost of a shadow in it*

*Life means all that it ever meant
It is the same as it ever was
There is absolute unbroken continuity
What is death but a negligible accident?
Why should I be out of mind
Because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you for an interval
Somewhere very near
Just around the corner*

*All is well.
Nothing is past; nothing is lost
One brief moment and all will be as it was before
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!*

“ To Pat's family, my thoughts and prayers are with you. I met Pat on the night of our conversion in 2004. Since it was late and had been a long day my shoes had somehow had just fallen off my feet. Pat asked if that helped things go better, "of course" I replied. Since then, whenever I called Pat for help (as he was my go to person) he always asked if I had my shoes on, me then reminded me it worked better if I took them off for a minute! Slipping those shoes off for just a minute thinking of you Pat!

“ I have so many things that I could say about Pat. I have known Pat for more than 10yrs. When I was in the branch, I only worked with him by phone. He was so kind and considerate. He helped me many many times with our computers. You know that he was extremely busy but he never once acted like he was. He never rushed us through the steps to fix our issues. Years ago he would talk about his vacations with his family. How much he loved his children. I felt like I knew them but never met them. Since I moved to the corporate office and started working on the 8th floor next to the IT department, I would see Pat every day. It was nice to finally meet him in person. The smile that you would hear on the phone is the same smile that he shared with all of us. He will be missed by all. May God bless his family with peace during this time of sorrow. We love and miss you my friend.
